4th December, 2021

INTRODUCTION

The Manipur University of Culture came up under a driving need to safeguard the rich cultural heritage of the state and to nourish its unique potential as envisaged in the cultural policies of the Government. In exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (3) of section 1 of the Manipur University of Culture Act, 2015 the Governor of Manipur is pleased to appoint the 25th August, 2015 as the date of commencement of the Act. The Act which received the assent of the Governor of Manipur on 10th April, 2015 has been published in the extraordinary publication of Manipur Gazette as THE MANIPUR UNIVERSITY OF CULTURE ACT, 2015 (MANIPUR ACT NO. 7 OF 2015).

The objectives of the University shall be to disseminate and advance knowledge by teaching, research and training in various spheres of culture; to promote the ethnic studies that bear upon the living conditions of the communities of South-east Asia; to serve as a centre for fostering cooperation and exchange of ideas among academicians and research communities of other Institutions and Universities of repute in India and abroad and to provide facilities and opportunities for graduate, post-graduate, doctorate, post-doctorate education in various aspects of culture; paying special attention to the promotion and preservation of the rich heritage of Manipuri Culture.

The University shall be open to all persons irrespective of sex, race, caste and creed. The University shall not adopt or impose on any person any test whatsoever of religious belief or profession in order to entitle a person to be appointed as a teacher of the University or to hold any other office therein or be admitted as a student in the University and enjoy or exercise any privilege growing out of it.

The University started to function on December 4, 2015 when the first Vice Chancellor and the first Registrar of the University, appointed by the Governor of the state in his capacity as the Chancellor of the University under the Transitional Provision of the Manipur University of Culture Act, Article No. 43.

The Manipur University of Culture is a new and unique University of the state and the first of its kind in the entire North-Eastern part of India. It is a teaching and affiliating University established with the objectives mentioned above, aiming at providing opportunities and facilities for graduate, post graduate, doctorate and post doctorate studies in the concerned areas.

The Administrative office of the University is at present located at the premises of the Directorate of Art and Culture building complex, Government of Manipur, Palace Compound, Imphal. Its academic centre is now opened as Extension Campus of MUC, Canchipur near Manipur University, North Gate. Recently Govt. of Manipur has allotted 118 acres of land for establishment of Manipur University of Culture at Wakha, Nongmaiching, Imphal East.

SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES

Department of Umanglai Haraoba:

The Department of Umanglai Haraoba, Manipur University of Culture, Imphal was established in the year 2016 under the Manipur University of Culture Act, 2015, with an objective to develop the Umanglai culture to a higher level with proper academic standard. The Department started with Bachelor's Degree in Umanglai Haraoba with 15 students for its first batch. The Department introduced Post graduate course on Umanglai Haraoba from the Academic Session 2020-2021 under Choice Based Credit System which will lead to Doctorate and Post-Doctorate levels of study and research. The course has been designed taking into account the significance of Umanglai Haraoba to the contemporary society and the developments observed in the field of Umanglai culture which is multidisciplinary in nature. It is an attempt to analyse Umanglai Haraoba and its contents within broader comparative parameters. The curriculum is definitely going to be a concrete framework and both faculty and students would really be highly benefited by the content and approach.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

Department of Culture Studies:

The Department of Culture Studies is an important pillar in the overall academic structure of Manipur University of Culture which is worth the name. The department was established with a view to provide an institutional mechanism to clarify the intricacies built in the concept of culture. The department also aims at drawing serious academic attention to the vast diversity of human culture in time and space, both in the traditional and globalized contemporary contexts. The Department introduced Post graduate course from the Academic Session 2020-21 with Choice Based Credit System which will further lead to Doctoral and Post Doctoral Courses.

The Course has been designed taking into account the importance and significance of Culture Studies in the contemporary societies. The contents of the Course are to analyse culture from different perspectives which will be beneficial to the students in future.

Department of Tribal Studies:

The Department of Tribal Studies came into existence since the inception of Manipur University of Culture in the year 2016. The Department of Tribal Studies offers Bachelor of Arts in Tribal Studies (BTS). It is one of the first in North East India to offer Graduate Course in Tribal Studies. Master of Arts (MA) Programme in Tribal Studies commenced from the Academic Session 2020-2021. Any graduate of the general education specified in criteria section can apply for admission to MA programme in Tribal Studies. It is also the plan/vision of the Department of Tribal Studies to open Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Research programmes in near future as the North East including Manipur has become one of the focus areas of research of the academic community of the country and abroad.

SCHOOL OF ARTS*Department of English:

Department of English, Manipur University of Culture offers integrated, interdisciplinary programmes of teaching and research in English Language and English Literature (including Indian and North East Literature). The B.A. programme in English, open to all disciplines, besides giving basic courses in descriptive and general English, places particular emphasis to supplement their own language learning activities with theoretical insights and practical applications of literature. The programme seeks to develop in the students an ability to relate literature to their own indigenous context, to compare literary theories and texts and to explore the way history, culture, ideology and material forces condition literary texts. This allows for considerable interdisciplinary intellectual interaction. The Department also imparts an additional course on “Communication and Soft Skills in English” to the VIth Semester students to equip them with the pragmatic skills of learning and speaking in the said language. The Department has also offered Post-Graduate from the Academic Session 2020-2021, Doctorate and Post-doctorate studies will be started in the near future.

Department of Manipuri:

Manipuri culture can't be complete without the role of Manipuri Language and Literature. Manipuri Language has been recognised as a Modern Indian Language by the Sahitya Akademi and included in the Eight Schedule of Indian Constitution. Manipuri language is the only Tibeto Burman language in India with its own script – Meitei-Mayek. Literature is the backbone of Cultural Studies. In this view, the Academic Council of MUC offered a compulsory paper of Manipuri language and literature for bachelor courses up to higher classes in our University. The Master of Arts in Manipuri was started from the Academic Session 2020-21. It is also planning to offer Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Programmes in the Department in future.

SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS*Department of Dance:

In the very infant stage of the Manipur University of Culture, when the Manipur University of Culture Act, 2015 commenced on 25th August 2015, the Department of Dance was conceived with tremendous contributions from various learned scholars and eminent Gurus in the particular field. Formally, the Department of Dance, along with other departments was opened in the presence of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor and Registrar on 20th September 2016 in the Conference Hall of the Government Dance College, Imphal East. The Master of Arts in Dance will commence from the Academic Session 2020-21. It is also planning to offer Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Programmes in future.

Department of Music:

Department of Music, Manipur University of Culture is established to provide a better understanding on the growth and development of the various culture of the State, India and abroad. This Department will provide the knowledge of the Ragas of Hindustani Music and essential elements of Folk Music to the students of the soil particularly. The course will also introduce the students to the origin, development and historical background of other nations like Chinese, Arabic, Persian, South East Asian countries and Western Music. The students will learn about musical scales and musical instruments about these nations. They will also be made to understand the Western Staff Notation System and the contribution of prominent musicians.

Divided into two sections i.e. Folk Music and Hindustani Music, each section shall provide the different fields of studies based on their nature and scope of the subject and shall also take this into account during the time of admission to M.A. The Master of Arts in Music was started from the Academic Session 2020-21. It is also planning to offer Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Programmes in the Department in future.

Department of Sankirtana:

In the very infant stage of the Manipur University of Culture, when the Manipur University of Culture Act, 2015, commenced on 25th August, 2015, the Department of Sankirtana was conceived with tremendous contributions from various learned scholars and eminent Gurus in the particular field. Formally, the Department of Sankirtana, along with other Departments was opened in the presence of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor and Registrar on 20th September, 2016 in the Conference Hall of the Government Dance College Campus, Palace Compound, Imphal East. At present the Department is offering Three Year Graduate Degree in the field of Sankirtana. Master of Arts in Sankirtana was introduced in the Academic Session 2020-2021

Department of Thang-Ta:

Thang-Ta is a popular form of ancient Manipuri Martial Art also known as Huyen Lallong. The art developed from the war environment of the tiny state of Manipur in North-east India, which was an independent kingdom since the early Christian era. It played a significant role in the geopolitical environment of medieval period in between India and China with many independent states at war with each other. Thang-Ta (The art of sword and the spear) thus became an expressive art form which however retained its fighting character at the secret home schools of individual teachers or Gurus, after being prohibited during the colonial period (1891-1947). It survived during the period of Manipur's integration with the Indian Union in 1949, where the art-form was shown in various festivals and performance platforms abroad since 1976. It is at an exploratory stage that this new culture is being re-examined. Now, Thang- Ta is included in the general education in Manipur because of its social, spiritual, physical and cultural values. The Master of Arts in Thang-Ta was commenced from the Academic Session 2020-21. It is also planning to offer Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Programmes in the Department in future.

Department of Theatre:

The Manipur University of Culture (MUC) is the first Cultural University as an academic institution in the North Eastern Region of India for learning the various indigenous performing arts of Manipur including Indian culture. The Manipur University of Culture (MUC) was recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC), Ministry of Education, Government of India. The Department of Theatre and Performance Studies has been opened since the establishment of the University. Theatre and Performance Studies offers a diverse spectrum of courses covering the history, theory and practice of theatre, dance, music and performance, both within India and across the world. Covering a vast time frame from 'living traditions' of rural performances to the cutting-edge developments in political theatre, gender, globalization, and performance art, the Department is committed to studying theatre and performance both within established traditions of the stage, as well as concerning the immediacies and contradictions of public culture at national and global levels. The Master of Arts in Theatre and Performance Studies was started from the Academic Session 2020-21. It is also planning to offer Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Programmes in the Department in future.

SCHOOL OF VISUAL ARTS*Department of Visual Arts:

Visual Arts, also known as Fine Arts, if we look at the magnificent art works and genius artists, great patrons of the earlier ages, we understand that all those perfections and dignities of art and artists are the outcome of their dedication, discipline, loyalty and endeavour. On the other hand, the simple art of the innocent people, although their works are naïve and simple in character yet it has an identity and carved a niche. They function carefully the systems of execution, within the parameters of rules that are left for them by their ancestors, and what we now called today as, "tradition" and "culture". The Visual Arts Faculty aspired to follow the great achievements of the artists of the earlier ages. Moreover, at the same time contemporary ideas and knowledge of other art movements are imparted to the students. Students are given utmost suitable trainings based on full practical and theory programmes. The faculty is providing good classroom, library, computer lab, metal casting facilities and other amenities for comfort of the students. Annual Art Exhibition for the students, external and internal study tours are part of the course. Outstanding students of particular fields are awarded.

Classes are taken by the long experience teachers including two renowned senior artists of Manipur, at present; The Master of Arts in Visual Arts was started from the Academic Session 2020-21. It is also planning to offer Ph.D and Post-Doctoral Programmes in the Department in future.
